PAYING full price is so last year. 2010 is all about the steal! Bagging a designer bargain has never been so easy. But can discounted fashion really deliver in the style stakes? To find out, the Post has teamed up with that high street mecca of cut-price designer labels, TK Maxx, to find three readers who fancy a fashion makeover, but with Comic Relief still in mind! Celebrity stylist Hannah Sandling, who has styled a number of A-list celebs including Sienna Miller and Dita Von

Teese, will be at the city's Parc Morfa branch to show three local readers different ways to wear this year's Sport Relief T-shirt designed by the Beckham family. She will demonstrate how you can rock it up or tailor it down, depending on your mood. If you would like the chance to find out, we would like to hear from you. Contact our features editor by emailing peter.slee@swmedia.co.uk telling us in no more than 50 words why you deserve a new look, or write to Features Desk, Evening Post, Adelaide Street, Swansea, SA1 1QT marking your envelope 'Makeovers.'
